Farm Activity Book

Meet your farm helper!

Hi! I am a little chick from the farm.
I will be with you all through this book.
But I don't have a name yet. Will you give me one?

Dear grown-ups

This book is full of farm fun for children aged 3 to 6: mazes, dot-to-dots, tracing, counting, coloring and many more puzzles. Every page practices something your child will need at school: holding a pencil, noticing small details, counting and thinking a step ahead.

The book has 4 parts: Puzzle Fun, Learn & Count, Color & Create and Trace & Write. Each part mixes several kinds of activities, so there is always something new to try. Trace & Write ends with the letters A to Z and the numbers 1 to 10, in order. The solutions are at the back of the book.

A few tips

- Pick a calm moment, when your child is rested and fed.
- Let your child choose. There is no need to go in order or to finish a page.
- Read the instructions aloud; the pictures do the rest.
- Praise the effort, not only the right answer.
- Stuck? Give a small hint rather than the answer.

Have fun on the farm!

Love, your little farm helper

What your child learns

- Thinking
  Mazes, shape sudoku, what comes next and word search build logic, planning ahead and problem solving.
- Looking closely
  Spot the difference and search and find train attention to detail and the patience to keep looking.
- Numbers
  Counting, number mazes, color by number and dot-to-dots make numbers familiar and fun.
- Letters
  Every letter from A to Z, big and small, with words to trace and pictures that start with its sound: a first step to reading and writing.
- Hand skills
  Tracing, coloring and joining dots strengthen the small hand muscles needed to hold a pencil and write.
- New words
  Farm animals, food, tools and everyday things, from apple to zebra, grow your child's vocabulary. Talk about the pictures together!
- Confidence
  Finishing a page, ticking it off and earning the certificate at the end show your child what they can do.

How hard is a page?

★☆☆ easy, about ages 3 to 4
★★☆ medium, about ages 4 to 5
★★★ a challenge, about ages 5 to 6

Look for the stars above each page's title. Every level has the same number of pages of each kind, so you can pick only one-star pages for a younger child and move up when your child is ready. Every child grows at their own pace: it is fine to stay at one level for a while. Pages without stars, like the letters and numbers, suit every age.
